From Chancellor Kent's Eulogy on the suthor.

"The American Dictionary of the English Language, is a work of profound investigation, and does infinite honor to the philological learning and general literature of this country. Happy the man who can thus honorably identify his name with the existence of our vernacular tongue. There is no other way in which mortal man could more effectually secure immortality beneath the skies. Obelisks, arches, and triumphal monuments seem to be as transient as the hubble of military reputation. No work of art can withstand the incessant strokes of time. The unrivalled Parthenon, glowing in polished marble, and which, for more than two thousand years continued from the summit of the citadel of Athens to cast its broad splendors across the plains below, and along the coasts and headlands of Attica, is now crumbling to ruins, after being deepoiled of its most exquithe coasts and headlands of Attica, is now crumb-ling to ruins, after being despoided of its most exqui-site materials by savage war and heartless man.— Even the Pyramide of Egypt, whose origin is hidden in the deepest recesses of antiquity, and which have always stood in awe-inspiring solitude and grandeur, are now annoyed by the depredations of curiosity, and greatly corroded by the action of the elements, and gradually sinking under the encroaching sands of the desert. This dictionary; and the language which it embodies will also nersh; but it will not be which it embodies will also persh; but it will not be with the gorgeous palaces. It will go with the solemn temptes and the great globe itself."

The Publishers of the foregoing work respectfully announce that they have made arrangements with Mr. F. Taylor, Bookseller, of Washington city, to furnish the American Dictionary, in two large volumes, at the very reduced price of twelve dollars. It is to be understood that for this price the best

It is to be understood that for this price the best paper and type, and the best binding, will be supplied—the best copies, that is to say, in all respects.

The very valuable supplement, which is contained in no other edition than the present one, should not be passed unnoticed; it contains four thousand words, not given in any other dictionary; was only completed by Dr. Webster in 1843, immediately before the sickness which terminated his valuable life, and has been published and copy-righted, since his death, by his executors.

The work is now therefore in a finished and com-The work is now therefore in a finished and complete state, it is not to be supposed that any thing more can or will be added to it, the present edition defining and illustrating twenty thousand more words than the edition which, when it first issued from the hands of Dr. Webster, was acknowledged by the English philologists to be the best dictionary in the world.

In offering my services as Land agent in Texas, I In offering my services as Land agent in Texas, I have thought proper to make known some o' he difficulties attending claims held in Texas by persons residing in the United States. 1st. Many forfeit all legal right to accrue from failure to pay taxes. 2d. Many claims, otherwise good, will be barred by adverse possession of three years, which is our limitation. 3d. For want of proper authentication of titles conveyed in the United States to admit them to record here.

From some one or other of these causes, the best kinds of elear title (if not attended to) are in a condition to be lost; laods too that would now sell for one, two, or three dollars per acre, according to location. I wish, however, to be perfectly understood, that, having made up my mind to attend diligently to all claims confided to me, and to look to that employment mainly for a support, and believing that I am qualified to discharge the duties I offer to take upon myself, and having made it my business to become quarined to discharge the author i oner to take upon myself, and having made it my business to become acquainted with all the laws relating to title, and having offered the most satisfactory reference as to my fitness and integrity, I require in all cases an ad-vance in cash fully sufficient to cover the expenses of investigation. When this shall be done, I am willing to take a contingent interest in the land for attention and service.

P. S. I will also attend to the collection and sett ment of such claims as may be entrusted to me. feb 14-cp3m a matriculation fee of $10. A small charge for average damages.

Much pains have been taken to bring the expenses of education here within the means of the greatest number. Boarding, including lights, care of rooms, &c., together with tuition, room rent, and other charges, amounts to about $156 for the College year.—
This is exclusive of fuel, which is furnished at cost, and washing at 37½ cents per dozen—the amount of these items varying with the habits of the student. Students may be admitted at any time—charges in proportion. Bills payable in advance—half at the opening, the balance at the middle of the session.

PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

In this School pupils are fitted for admission to the College classes, or for other objects: students who are unprepared for entering a particular class may here pursue the requisite studies; while those who are not designed for a profession can select such branches as will suit their objects in life.

This school will be under the constant superindence of the Faculty of the College. Charges per quarte Reading, Writing, and Elementary Arith-

College Hill, Oct. 16, 1844. THE NEW YORK WEEKLY MIRROR.

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY MIRROR.

A N elegantly printed periodical, of sixteen quarto pages—is published every Saturday morning, and forwarded by the earliest mails to subscribers residing out of this city. (Subject to newspaper postage only.) The Weekly Mirror is as faithful a history of the week's opinions, news, pleasures, politics, literature, and all manner of bringings forth, as the Editors and their many assistants can possibly bring together—completed, as an arduous daily task of compilation, comparison, research and comment. It has also the essentials and the spice of Foreign News, and, in short, the most comprehensive budget that can be made up of each week's doings, the world over! Those who cannot afford a daily, or who live over! Those who cannot afford a daily, or who live in the country where they do not care for advertisements, or who want a paper that tells them everything once a week, will find the Weekly Mirror exactly to their mind. Postmasters throughout the Union, will frank all remittances. Any postmaster remitting five dollars will receive two co-

PROSPECTUS

For publishing in the City of Washington, a Dem Newspaper, to be called "THE CONSTITUTION."

"THE CONSTITUTION."

The undersigned, having purchased the materials of The Spectator, will issue, on or before the 10th inst. the first number of a new paper to be called "The Constitution." It will be devoted to the steady advocacy of that system of measures which will preserve unimpaired the sacred instrument from which we borrow the name; and as constantly oppose whatever is not san though by it. We shall unceasingly oppose a National Bank—a Protective Tariff—Internal Improvement by the General Government—a Distribution of the Proceeds of the sales of the Public Lands—Assumption of the State Debts—an abrogation of the Executive Veto, as unconstitutional and inexpedient.

We hope to make the paper worthy of the condence and support of the Democratic party. It shall be the faithful expositor of their principles, and the ever ready medium to convey their sentiments and wishes to the public. The Democratic cause, is the cause of truth and justice. It courts the ir—it shums no investigation. And we are determined to see whether a paper, conducted with a devotion to the principles, rather than to the men, of our party—to further the great cause of human progress, rather than the mere advancement of particular individuals, will not commend itself to the confidence and favor of thepeople.
